

Union Update

3-22-2011

The Bargaining Committee would like to remind you that the Opening Day of Negotiations is this Friday (3-25-11) at the Clock Tower. We will be having several guests that will be attending the start of negotiations.

We will be having a tour with our guests after the meeting with the Company. Let's show our Solidarity by wearing our Union shirts on Friday and every day that we meet with the Company. We will post the days that we are meeting in the near future.

(Your Chief Stewards will be coming around with order forms for new t-shirts that we will be selling for $15)

In Solidarity,
Your Bargaining Committee
